ANNA A. BARRETT.

When "Worn Out."

For years we have daily received hundreds of testimonials from patients, in which they describe their previous conditions as "worn out." Probably this term describes the feeling of sick nerves as completely as any other.

But one is never really "worn out" until too late.

The truth is the nerves are tired.

Tired, sick nerves cause that "worn out," "run down," "used up" feeling. The nerves stop doing their work properly—they protest against neglect, in a general way or in some particular way, just exactly as they protest if you put your fingers on a hot stove.

The protest of tired, neglected nerves is as distinct to medical science as a burn.

Paine's Celery Compound is a tonic for protesting nerves. It soothes them and feeds them back to their full strength.

That is why Paine's Celery Compound has for 17 years been the standard nerve vitalizer and tonic.

For 17 years Paine's Celery Compound has been the one great accepted tonic for the nerves, and the most universally used tonic in the world.

Miss Barrett neglected her nerves—they protested by making her feel "worn out" and nervous. She answered their protest.
